Moving Out of the Comfort Zone

BIBLE THOUGHT: "O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant . . . For I was the king's cupbearer" (Nehemiah 1:11, KJV).

WHAT a gianormous undertaking! The wall was finished and look-outs were needed. Old enemies of the Jewish people—the Moabites, Ammonites, Samaritans and other groups—had possession and retained residency in the surrounding lands. Nehemiah had to deal with the possibility that the city could, once again, fall under attack, so he had a plan. Who better to look out for the welfare of the city than the people of the city! He gave the responsibility of governing Jerusalem to his brother Hanani and the commander of the fortress, Hananiah. Nehemiah knew that everyone had something to contribute, even if their contribution was right in front of his or her home. They needed to come out of their comfort zones. It didn't matter that the city was large and the citizens were few. Jerusalem was rebuilding, and guarding the city was very important.

As Christians we are ready to step outside of our usual comfort zones and do whatever needs to be done. There is always work to be done which contributes to the growth of God's kingdom. Don't let your comfort zone block your blessings or growth.

Sing: "Seek Ye First"

Dear Lord, help me to be willing always to step outside of my comfort zone. I want You to use me, and I know You can only use me when I am willing. In Jesus' name. Amen.

YOUTH NEWS

Last Wednesday the group went to three different sub-divisions and handed out fliers for the addiction seminar that was held at Walnut Street last Saturday. We handed out several hundred.

The prom alternative is underway.....At this time fifteen young people have decided to attend. They chose St. Louis as the destination. We will be leaving early Friday afternoon. Please keep us in your prayers, for a safe trip to and from.

Work is going on for the Amazing Race summer camp. Be ready to sign up when the sheets are out.

We have had an amazing amount of young people attend the Wednesday program this year. We only have about 6 weeks left. The year has flown by.

We are looking for next year's cooks. Please see Carol or Tom Todd if you are interested.

We are also looking for counselors for up coming events. Your help would be greatly appreciated.

Used Teachers Material

In the downstairs hallway there is good teacher's material. Please look through it and take what you can use.

World Bible School

The world is getting smaller. But the need for the Bible looms as large as ever. Technology is proliferating. It's connecting all kinds of people, all around the globe, like never before. It's true that much of the world's population that has Internet access is right here in the U.S. – a quarter of a billion of us. (What an evangelistic opportunity that is!) But today, the entire world is going to the Internet – from Asia to Africa to the Americas. World Bible School will be there, with your support. Join us by giving on Impact Sunday, May 3rd.
