YOUTH NEWS

What a very busy week this has been. On Tuesday the youth went to Cookeville to SOC. This is a campus ministry at TTU. Tom Todd gave a lesson on forgiveness. The food was great, the hospitality better and lesson insightful. We made a lot of new friends there. Wednesday was spring break but we had a full Wednesday night class anyway. We missed Emily who was in Japan. Thursday several of the youth attended the catfish dinner for the inner city ministry. Friday they left for Making Music at Freed around 7:00 AM and got home about 1:00 AM. Everyone had a wonderful time and really enjoyed themselves. Don't forget you will have another $40.00 due for the prom alternative on the 15th. Some have not paid their first $40.00. Get with it.....the youth group can't support you. Sunday was a devotion at the home of Steve and Melissa Wallick. They are always very hospitable, food delicious and lesson something to ponder. Thank you Steve and Melissa, you are special people. Looking forward to another special week.

CATFISH DINNER

On Thursday night a group left for Nashville and the catfish dinner fund raiser for the inner city ministry. We had 4 adults and several teens. Our table raised $240.00. That night one hundred and sixty eight thousand was raised by all. Next year we would like to have at least 2 tables. Please adults put this time on your calendars!

KENTUCKY MISSION TRIP

For the month of April toys to be brought in are basketballs, soccer balls, Barbie dolls and baby dolls. All can be purchased for $5.00 each. Please remember this is the only Christmas these children have. Thank you to those who have already brought a toy. We really appreciate you.

From the Couch

Grandpa Jacob was always smiling & pleasant. He was a hard worker. Jacob loved every Bible camp he participated in: Mid-Summer Bible Camp at Leatherwood, Amazing Race Bible Camp at Meribah, and Teenage Christian Camp in Knoxville. He did a lot of work for Brij Ramgopal and Jerry Western. Columbus, OH. Jacob, 18, was killed in a traffic accident last Saturday. He will be missed.

Twenty-two couples spent last weekend in prayer, Bible study, worship, games, and fellowship. Our thanks to Jay Wilkins, Danny McCulley, and Carl Meadows for teaching the Bible studies, Ellen Lee and Caroline Tidwell for planning and preparing the meals, and Debbie Couch for making arrangements for housing. Congratulations to Sue Coffey for being baptized on Friday night.
