YOUTH NEWS

Another beautiful week has slipped by. On Wednesday two speakers from Walnut Street came to speak to our group. They were very interesting and had a lot of good information for the teens. Both were former drug and alcohol abusers. They told how easy and young they were when they started. One was 12. One had been a member of the church all his life. He also told how he went to a Christian college and abused drugs in his room for months. It was very enlightening for the adults as well as the teens.

On Sunday night we took the bus to Dickson to visit with the Karnes family. Such a sad but happy occasion. Kelsie is now in a safe place and her spirit is free. We know the family will miss her greatly. Cody, Kelsie's brother is a member of our youth group. A great young man and a strong Christian example.

Your deposit was supposed to be in for the prom alternative on Sunday. Hurry to get it in because we have to order tickets and reserve rooms. We are excited!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

In Memory

Kelsie Lynn Karnes

August 16, 1999 – March 19, 2010

Kelsie Karnes was independent, spunky, responsible, compliant, neat, organized, & spiritual. She loved the outdoors. She was a good observer of nature & had a great love for bird watching. She loved drawing birds or imitating their sounds.

Four years ago, Kelsie began a journey that would show incredibly bravery for a young woman. Although only a child, she faced sickness & death with great courage. On Feb. 21, 2010, Kelsie was born of the water and the Spirit (John 3:5). On March 19, 2010, Kelsie was carried by angels to Paradise.

Jesus said of children like Kelsie, *Í Gi ZZ Yf ' `] h h ` Y ` W h \ Ya ` b c h ž ` h c ` Wc a Y ` i b h c ` a Y . ` Z c f ` c Z ` fl A U h h \ Y k ` %- . % (Ł " ` ` ? Church Family Meeting this Sunday March 28 What Are Your Ideas?

On Sunday evening, March 28 after a brief worship service, we will have a period of fellowship with finger foods. Afterwards, the elders invite you to share ideas that you think will make this church more effective in winning souls.

Five separate tables will be set up where small groups can share ideas on how the church can grow. The 1st table will be for ideas on member retention and will be chaired by Brent Welch.

The 2nd table Jay Wilkins will be writing down your ideas on education. Mike Shouse will listen to your ideas on fellowship at a 3rd table.

Larry Osborne will be at the 4th table to hear ideas on evangelism. Shamron Jackson will be a 5th table to listen to ideas on how the church can better minister/serve our spiritual family and the community.

You will have the opportunity to sit at each table. They will hear every suggestion and piece of advice. All information will be evaluated. You can give input into what you want this church to be.

The Bible shows that the best kind of leadership is one that listens as well as leads. March 28 will give the elders an opportunity to hear you. Afterwards it will be their responsibility to lead, and your opportunity to follow. (Ladies please bring finger foods.)
