

The Value of a Smile

A smile is nature's best antidote for discouragement. It brings rest to the weary, sunshine to those who are sad, and hope to those who are hopeless and defeated.

A smile is so valuable that it can't be bought, begged, borrowed, or taken away against our will. You have to be willing to give a smile away before it can do anyone else any good.

So if someone is too tired or grumpy to flash you a smile, let him have one of yours anyway. Nobody needs a smile as much as the person who has none to give.

Sympathy

Sympathy is extended the the family of Joe Fuller (father of Beverly Fuller & Tim Fuller) who passed away December 14th.

It isn't what you have, or who you are, or where you are, or what you are doing that makes you happy or unhappy. It is what you think about.
Dale Carnegie

Thank You

I have received much love, many cards and visits since I have been a shut in. I am sure many prayers have been offered for me. I need that spiritually and physically. I enjoy meals on wheels and do so enjoy the visits with those who bring them. I have enjoyed the cards I have received from my little friends there. Then there is the Youth Group with their Christian countenance, manners, happy chatter, their hugs and always ready to party with me. I have been blessed in that my brother (Jim) and sister-in-law (Peggy) worship with me each Sunday and that is good that I haven't missed worship. I do miss and love all of you. I would love each of you to visit me. In fact I think that it should be mandatory. 🇺🇸
Much Love,
Dartha Bull

YOUTH NEWS

We want to thank everyone that helped with the Wednesday after school program last week. We were able to see our son and his family from Florida and be with our daughter during her surgery. Thank you so very much.

Sunday night the youth had their Christmas party. Thank you to the Wilkins for their hospitality and sharing their home. What a bunch of gift grabbers we had. They were very funny. Stay safe and remember Jesus during this break. Merry Christmas and a great New Year to all of you.

Meet Our Youth

Autumn Hooper has a brother and two sisters. Her favorite food is chocolate pizza and color is orange. Autumn's favorite subject in school is language arts and she hopes to be a basketball player or dancer someday. She has 2 dogs for pets and her best friend is Adrienne. Say hi to Autumn when you see her!!!!!!

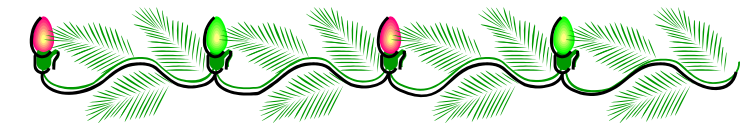

The Kentucky Mission Trip was cancelled this year due to Tom & Carol Todd's daughter Chantel being seriously ill and in the hospital. The Youth Group took the toys to DHS to be distributed to Dickson County's needy children. Thank you to everyone who donated.

Tom & Carol Todd

Missions Corner

See the bulletin board for latest reports from our missionaries. Harold Driver is excited about a recent baptism and restoration. He is also concerned about the coming winter weather as it affects attendance and contributions. He asks for our prayers and appreciates our continued support. Please remember our missionaries in your prayers and with cards and notes.

Attention Ladies

Food Calling List

We are still in need of 6 ladies for the Food Calling. The list is in the foyer. If your name is not on a list and you want to serve, please add your name to the list.
