From the Couch

Tornado Recovery News. People across several states in the South continue to help their neighbors recover from April 28 tornadoes.

A special contribution will be taken at the end of Sunday morning services May 15 and will be sent directly to the Lord's Church in Alabama. You may make checks to the White Bluff Church of Christ. Be sure to earmark it for Tornado Relief.

The Central Church of Christ in Tuscaloosa, AL is feeding 2000 people every other day. Officials in Alabama & Georgia say they have plenty of bottled water and food right now for tornado victims.

Nine were killed in the Ringgold, GA area. The picture at right was taken near Ringgold. The Mayor's Office of Ringgold, GA is welcoming volunteers to come and aid in clean-up efforts. However, all volunteers must be eighteen years or older. A sign-up sheet is in the foyer if you are able to aid in the clean-up in the next few days.

Add-a-Dish Meal This Sunday. A congregational meal honoring all our graduates will be this Sunday, May 15. Barbeque will be furnished. Ladies are asked to bring baked beans, potato salad and other dishes that go with barbeque.
