My Part

God didn't put me on this earth to have an easy time. He put me here to fight a fight, to hold a battle line.

He put me here to help the weak and myself grow strong. He put me here to lend a hand and help the world along.

He put me here to say a word of encouragement and cheer; He put me here to sing a song for someone else to hear.

He didn't put me here to whine, stick out my lips and pout. He put me here to do his work and Satan's evil rout.

He didn't put me here to seek rewards and starry crowns. He put me here to do my part and see that love abounds.

So I'll just seek to do my part as I travel through these lands, and I will strive to do His will and leave all in His hands.

Make strides to end breast cancer.

I know you're busy so I'll keep this quick. I just signed up for an event that's really important to me - the American Cancer Society Making Strides Against Breast Cancer walk - and I wanted to ask if you would...

MAKE A DONATION ON MY BEHALF

OK, that really was the quick (and to-the-point) version, but if you have another minute, I'll tell you a little more. There are 2.5 million breast cancer survivors who celebrated another birthday last year because people like you made a donation in support of people like me. Helping the American Cancer Society continue their work in the fight against breast cancer is really important to me. Last year, Making Strides raised $60 million to help people stay well and get well, to find cures, and fight back against breast cancer - and it happened one $10, $25, and $50 donation at a time. I've signed up for this event because I really want to make a difference in the fight against breast cancer and your donation of any amount - will help me do that.

If you would like to make a donation, please make the check payable to the American Cancer Society. I will take your donation with me on the morning of the walk. If you would like to make a donation on-line, or JOIN me for the walk, please go to www.makingstrides.acevents, and click on FIND A WALKER. I am listed under "Ellen Lee" (imagine that.)

I thank everyone for your support.

Many thanks,
Ellen Lee

There's Still No Time for Him

My time, my time is much too short
And I really hate to miss,
It's a busy life we live today.
I'm sorry, you know how it is?

My weary mind heard the words he said
But, my thoughts turned not to him,
Instead a scene came to my eyes,
Of a land grown dark and dim.

In the noon-day darkness a man had died
And the veil was rent in two;
And a mother cried for her son cut down
He was barely yet age thirty-two.

His crime was one of loving too much
Mankind so steeped in sin.
He fed the poor, gave life again,
Healed all who came to Him.

His time was short on this earth below,
For the race he chose to run.
But at the end, on a cross for me,
He cried out "My Father, tis done!"

But the blood red bonds of death cannot
Hold one never touched by sin.
Upon His throne, he offers me home
But His side for time without end.

It's a care-worn cup we sip today,
Filled up to the very brim,
And though His life poured out for mine,
There's still no time for Him.
